Board Of Regents Meets In May

Monday and Tuesday, May 11th and 12th, have been designated as the time for the annual meeting of the Board of Regents by the president of the Board, W. E. Price.

Members of the Board are expected to arrive during the afternoon of Monday for a visit to the campus and some of these members will be in committee meetings which have been called for that afternoon and evening. The Board will convene in regular formal session at ten o'clock on Tuesday, the 12th.

The following is the stated schedule at the time of this printing:

Monday 2:30 P. M. - Finance and Budget Committee.

Monday 7:30 P. M. -Executive Committee.

Tuesday 9:00 A. M. - All Committees.

Tuesday 10:00 A. M. - Board Meeting.

In the regular session the members of the Board will hear reports on the year's work and project the plans for the coming year. Items of particular interest to be considered at this meeting will be the beginning of the work on the new Church, planning for cottages for the smaller children, and the consideration of necessary improvements to the campus.

Senior Fellowship Elects Officers

The Senior High Fellowship of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church elected the following officers to serve for the new year: President, Ennis Blackburn; Secretary, Shirley Byrd; Treasurer, Louise Bradshaw; Program Chairman, Elizabeth Ann Woodall. The newly selected Commission Chairmen are: Faith, Mary Emma McClure; Outreach, Phoebe Cochrane; Fellowship, Leroy Norman; Citizenship, Archie McMannen; Witness, Margaret Hopkins. The elected officers and the selected chairmen compose the Council which is already busy making plans for the new year's work.

Looming large in the future planning for members of the Fellowship are the chances to visit Camp Grier for the occasions that are open to the members of the Fellowship. Some of the boys and girls are already making plans to attend the Work Camp, and a

Death Claims Mrs. J. D. Lackey

Mrs. Jacob D. Lackey of Barium Springs died on Thursday morning, March 26th, at the H. F. Long Hospital in Statesville where she had been a patient for two weeks.

Mrs. Lackey was the former Bessie Lentz, daughter of the late Bob Clark Lentz and Mrs. Margaret Rufty Lentz of Alexander County. Her husband died in 1926.

She is survived by three daughters and five sons; Mrs. W. Forrest Sharpe of Statesville; Mrs. Paul Current of Olin; Mrs. Leonard Arness of Baltimore, Md.; Lewis H. Lackey of Winston-Salem; Rush F., John D., and L. Mac Lackey of Statesville, and Eston Lackey of Silver Springs, Md. Three brothers and two sisters survive; J. H. Lentz of Limona, Fla.; G. W. Lentz of Kannapolis; R. W. Lentz of Burlington; Mrs. W. F. Privette of Chevy Chase, Md.; Mrs. L. P. Mayberry of Charlotte. There are eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Lackey was a member of Little Joe's Church at Barium Springs and was for twenty-five years a member of the Barium family and a friend to a host of the children at Barium.

Funeral services conducted by the Reverend Charles H. Sides and the Reverend Albert McClure were held from Little Joe's Church at Barium and interment was in the family plot in Oakwood Cemetery in Statesville.

Awards Made At Basketball Banquet

The Annual Basketball Banquet brought to a close the High School Conference season. Since Barium Springs does not field a baseball team, basketball and football are the two sports which claim the attention of the boys and girls.

Reverend Charles H. Sides was the master of ceremonies and extended a welcome to the guests and presented those who made the different awards. The following boys and girls received their recognition for work on the junior teams:

Bernice Kuykendall, Virginia Baucom, Jean Harrison, Nellie Sellers, Catherine Kuykendall, Joyce Ferrell, Ann McLean, Babs Jackson,

Ronnie Hudgins, Walter Plyler, Charles Creech, Richard Vest, Ernest Austin, Boyce

Nineteen Children Make Profession

The inspiring sight of nineteen boys and girls standing in the front of the Church making their public Profession of Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ was a part of the regular Easter Sunday Service in Little Joe's Church. The Communicants' class had been held and the boys and girls had been instructed in the meaning of Church membership and had reached the point where of their own volition the had expressed the desire to become members of the Church. The Session had examined them and received them into membership with an order taken for baptism for those not having been baptized in infancy. Three of the nineteen had already received the Sacrament of Baptism and sixteen were baptized at the Morning Service.

Southeast Conference Held In Charleston

The annual meeting of tht Southeastern Conference for workers in Children's Homes was held in Charleston, S. C. on March 23, 24, and 25.

The institute for housemothers was conducted by Miss Eva Burmeister, a panel discussion on "Discipline" was presided over by Dr. W. C. Reed, and addresses were given by leaders in the field of Child Care.

President Robert Bruton of the Junior Order Home in Lexington presided and gave the president's address on Tuesday evening. The conference voted to meet in 1954 in Charlotte, N. C.

Attending the Conference from Barium were Miss Rebekah Carpenter, Miss Helen Bell, Miss Kate Taylor, and the superintendent.

Eighth Grade Gives Play

On Friday morning, April 10th, in the Elementary School auditorium the eighth grade presented a one-act dramatization called "Shirt-Tail Boy." The play showed Abe and Sarah Lincoln as played by Walter Plyler and Nancy Kyles, when their father James Ramsey, brings home their new mother, Shirley Hall. Dennis Hanks, Abe's cousin, was played by LeNair Burns.

Mac McClure was the announcer for the play and Ann McLean, Virginia Baucom, and Elaine Pursley had the devotions which included some of Lincoln's favorite scripture passages and hymns and poems written by Joseph Auslander

Commencement Plans Now Completed

The week-end of May 15th through 18th has been designated as Commencement Week end at Barium Springs. The highlight of this occasion will begin on Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon to be delivered by Dr. J. Rupert McGregor, President of the Mountain Retreat Association.

At the Sunday evening Vesper Service, designated particularly for the young people, the guest speaker will be Dr. J. M. Murchison, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Concord. On Monday morning the Class Day exercises will be held in the Elementary School Auditorium at ten o'clock, with the reading of the prophecy and will and the presentation of the class gift.

The graduating exercises will take place on Monday evening and the speaker for the occasion will be Dr. C. K. Brown, Professor and Dean of the Faculty at Davidson College. At this time there will be the awarding of medals and certificates and the diplomas will be presented to the members of the graduating class.

Beta Club Members Attend Convention

The annual North Carolina Beta Club Convention was held in Asheville on April 10th and 11th. Delegates from the Barium High School were Betty Ann Andrews, Carol Jean Andrews, Louise Bradshaw, Hilda Donaldson, Gloria Williams, and Elizabeth Ann Woodall. Mr. J. E. Ramsey of the High School faculty is sponsor for the Beta Club and he accompanied the group to the convention.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING GOOD

As the books were closed for the year 1952-53 it was manifest that the Thanksgiving Offering for the year would be the best in the history of the institution. While it will not reach the $100,000.-00 goal, it will come closer to it than any previous year's offering. It is always impossible to get a complete picture of the Thanksgiving Offering before the end of the year because some of the Thanksgiving contributions do not reach Barium until the end of the year, coming from church treasurers and from Presbyteries' treasurers.

The Home would express gratitude to every person who has made his contribution and to offer a prayer of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for his continued goodness in providing for the Home.

SCHOOL NEWS

By Hilda Donaldson

With just six more weeks of school left everyone is busy these days, especially the Seniors. They are practicing daily for their Senior plays to be given April 17th at 7:30 o'clock in the Elementary Auditorium. The plays and their characters include: "The Bishop's Candlestick" a one act play founded on an incident in "Les Miserables" with Albert Williams, the kindly old Bishop; Jerry Williams, the hardened Convict; Hilda Donaldson, Persome, the Bishop's widowed sister; Mary Helen Barnes, Marie the Maid; and Jimmy Johnson, Sergeant of Gendarmes; and "Prose Perferred", a comedy in one act, with Wilbert Frazier, twenty-three year old husband, Douglas; Dorothy Surles, his wife, Gloria; Shirley Porter, the maid, Florella; Rae Powell, a friend of Gloria, Mrs. Kingsford; Pattie Inman, a friend of Gloria, Miss Gard; Melvin Morrison, a friend of Douglas, Steffy; and Paul Dellinger, a friend of Douglas, Bert. Mrs. Joe Clark is the director. The Production Crew includes, Jackie Porterfield as costume mistress and Paul Dellinger as stage manager.

Other activities occupying the Senior's time are addressing graduation invitations, working on parallel reading, memorizing long poems, filling out college and work applications, getting Social Security Cards, and working on Class Day Exercises.

One of the most important social events for the Juniors will be May 1st, when they entertain the Seniors and Faculty at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and dance. It's all a secret still and the Seniors are anxiously awaiting May 1st.

The eighth grade recently gave their chapel program and presented a play about Abe Lincoln's childhood, "Shirtail Boy." The play was interesting and the authentic costumes added to the dramatazation. Also, Jo Nell Pursley's reading of the little colored "Lias" received applause.

One of the busiest organizations in school is the Beta Club. Between collecting money for various drives we have managed to print an addition of the little Beta newspaper, "The Barium Highlife." Money collected for the March of Dimes was $19 and for the American Red Cross, $22.50.

Six members will attend the North Carolina Beta Club Convention in Asheville April 10-11. Accompanied by their sponsor, Mr. J. E. Ramsey, these girls will go: Betty Ann Andrews, Carol Jean Andrews, Louise Bradshaw, Hilda Donaldson, Gloria Williams, and Elizabeth Ann Woodall. This year the Iredell County Beta Club has entered a candidate for the office of N. C. Vice-President. He is Bob McDade from Statesville. Helen Baucom made several campaign posters to help him win.

Other Beta Activities will be the election of new officers and their Candlelight Installation Service along with the installation of the new members. Also, we hope to print another edition of the paper before the end of school, to be dedicated to the Seniors.

The Glee Club recently went to Davidson to sing for the Campus Club. Everyone enjoyed the singing, dancing, TV, and refreshments so much that they are anxiously awaiting the visit down next year. It was really fun!

Now they are practicing daily for their Spring Concert to be given on May 15th at the Elementary Auditorium.

Several weeks ago the Senior voice students presented their Senior Voice Recital before an appreciative audience. Those on the program were: Mary Helen Barnes, soprano; Rae Powell, alto; Jerry Williams, tenor; and Alfred Williams, bass. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Lee Spencer.

The new piano teacher, Mrs. Chapman Lauderdale, will present her piano pupils in their annual spring recital on April 28th.

Barium Springs is honored to have the North Carolina Orphanage Conference on our campus April 24-25. Delegates of the high school age will attend from Oxford Orphanage, Mill's home, Children's Home, Junior Order Home, and Kennedy Home. Barium's delegates will be Mary Helen Barnes, Pattie Inman, Joyce Kelly, Ennis Blackburn, Archie McMannen, and David Morrison.

The last and best news of all is that of Commencement. Activities begin with the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday morning at 11:00, May 17th. Dr. J. Rupert McGregor, of Montreat, will deliver the sermon and on Sunday night Rev. J. M. Murchison, of the Concord First Presbyterian Church, will lead the service for the Young People. At 11:00 on Monday morning the Senior Class will have their Class Day Exercises. That evening at 8:00 the Graduation Exercises wil be held.

Good-bye from Barium High School for the 1952-53 term.

COTTAGE NEWS

Annie Louise Cottage

All of us girls at Annie Louise have been quite busy recently. Almost all of us have already recited the Catechism and we have been working in our flower graden. We have some beautiful tulips and iris.

We've been playing outside more since we've had warmer weather, and we have had a few egg hunts. School, of couse, has been taking up our other time. We have to study as well as learn our parts for our Spring programs. Some of us went to see our first basketball game the other day. Even though we don't know all the rule details, we enjoy them. We yell for both teams.

Speaking of "good 'ole school days", we don't have many more. We try to keep busy so we won't think of that fading pleasure. It isn't too hard to think of vacations and all the other pleasures during the Summer.

A few days ago the health department of Raleigh brought a puppet show to our school. It was the best that we have seen and the High School boys and girls seemed to enjoy it just as much as we did.

One of our brighter members asked this question: "Doesn't it ever rain any kind of rain except April showers in April?" That really is a difficult question to explain to her.

When the last of us received our Testaments for reciting the Catechism we really looked dressed up. As one of our little girls said, "We just looked gorgeous."

Now that it's getting warmer we hope to have many visitors to the campus and to our cottage.

—The A. L. C Girls.

Rumple Hall

Hello Friends,

Did you have a nice Easter? All of us at Rumple Hall certainly did - you ought to have seen the candy and colored eggs. Some nice friends at Rose's Store in Statesville sent every cottage lots of them.

We enjoyed the inspiring programs on T V on Easter Day and were so surprised that one came on early - about 8:30 on Sunday morning.

All the girls had new dresses for Easter, thanks to Mrs. Smith and Miss Campbell and the sewing room girls.

We have some gardeners in our cottage now. Sylvia Wells, Merle Byrd, Rachel Bass, Jean Harrison, and Peggy Sellers have all started digging up the stubborn old weeds and with the help of Mrs. Ellis have planted some flowers. We expect to see some mighty pretty flowers popping up soon.

We have really started playing baseball and softball now. I believe we have four teams of boys, the Rebels, Tramps, Bums, and Kings.

So long, everyone, until next month.

—Jean Harrison.

Howard Cottage

Hi Folks,

We were glad to have the magician to be with us last night. He did a swell job for us.

All of the Howard girls are studying hard on the Shorter Catechism for the last two months.

We had five girls to join the church last Sunday and they were: Kay Clarke, Judy Bolton, Carol Moore, Carol Harwell, and Ella Mae Moose.

We are glad that Mr. Grier is back with us again. We hope he had a nice vacation down in Florida. When he drove up in his car, just a little before dinner we all started running.

We have been having fun with Mr. Sides playing baseball and other games.

The fifth and seventh grades are going to Winston-Salem one day this week.

—Ella Mae Moose.

Henry Troutman Goes Into Service

April 20th marked the end of service at Barium Springs for Henry Troutman and he began his new experience with Uncle Sam in the Army. Henry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Troutman of the Barium family and graduated from the high school here in 1952 with high scholastic honors and a good record in athletics. He has an excellent reputation on the campus and in the community. Last October Henry came to the Home to assist in the work at the dairy, and upon Mr. Spencer's leaving, he took over that work and has operated it successfully for the last six months. Not only has the work been done well, but Henry has been a good influence upon the boys who have been associated with him in the operation of the dairy. Uncle Sam is getting another mighty good man, and all Barium will be looking forward to the return visits during his hitch of service.

After his discharge from the Service, Henry plans to enter college, studying perhaps at N. C. State or some similar institution, and the outlook for a very successful four years is exceptionally good, for this man is going to make a good name for himself in his chosen field.

Student Conference Coming To Campus

The annual meeting of the Student Orphanage Conference will be held at Barium Springs on April 24-25th. John Walters of the Children's Home in Winston-Salem is the president of the conference and announces that the program will be along the same lines at that of former years. Delegates from the various institutions will submit subjects for discussion and then assignments will be made for these various groups to discuss the assigned topics.

It is expected that about 40 delegates will be in attendance. A special feature for the students at Barium Springs and for the members of the Conference will be the entertainment on Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruton with a group of their studnts from the Junior Order Home in Lexington will present a talent show of very fine quality.

Mary Frances Price In Capping Exercise

Mary Frances Price has completed the necessary work at the Rowan County Memorial Hospital making her eligible to receive her cap in the capping exercises held on April 10th.

Those who know Mary Frances best feel that she is particularly well qualified to be an excellent nurse and anticipates her rendering fine service in this field.

Two Grades Visit Winston-Salem

"Tomorrow is the big day and I am so excited that I just know I will never be able to go to sleep tonight," said a member of the fifth grade. This excitement and enthusiasm was shared by every member of the fifth and seventh grades because the teachers, Miss Brandon of the fifth, and Mr. Guy of the seventh, had planned a special bus trip for their school children to Winston-Salem.

For many days preceding this wonderful occasion the total conversation on the campus had been of the things that they looked forward to seeing.

There was the expected view of the famous old coffee pot that they had read about and then the tour of God's Acre that they had heard about during the Easter services. Plans were made for visiting the cigarette factories, and the boys were particularly anxious to get to the airport to see the big ships drop in and take off. As the bus rolled out of the yard with the laughter and excitement bubbling out of the windows, someone remarked, "Wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if adults could recapture the enthusiasm of childhood in the things they have to do."

Awards Made At

The varsity awards were made by the coach of the teams, Mr. A. M. Calhoun, with the following persons receiving their certificates and letters for the year:

Rae Powell, Mary Helen Barnes, Margaret Hopkins, Edna Baucom, Betty Lou Johnson, Pattie Inman, Jackie Porterfield, Annie Leigh Frazier, Beth Jackins.

Everett Vest, Ennis Blackburn, Archie McMannen, Calvin Burleson, Cromer Curtis, Dean Upton, Frankie Smith, Jimmy Johnson.

The team voted Rae Powell captain and the outstanding player of the year for the girls, and Dean Upton captain and outstanding player of the year for the boys.

The coaches have a bright outlook for the season next year as only one regular from the boys' starting lineup is graduating, and, while strong members of the girls' team will be graduating, there are promising replacements in the lower grades.

Additional recognition has been awarded two of the girls, Jackie Porterfield and Pattie Inman were selected as All-Conference guards for the season.
